

CORYTHOSAURUS

'core-ITH-oh-SORE-us'

Corythosaurus means "helmet lizard". Scientists gave it this name because the crest on its head reminded them of helmets worn by ancient Greek soldiers. The crest was hollow, which probably amplified the sounds of the dinosaur's calls, rather like a trumpet.

